To whom it may concern, As a tax payer I am appalled at the litigious fashion in which the Department of Justice is limiting the ability of a company to compete in an open competitive market place. I for one do not feel harmed by Microsoft and its business practices, and feel that their business practice has only succeeded in bringing to the consumer exceptional products at competitive prices. It is a joke that any company that can and has not delivered been able to compete evenly simply files suit again and again.
